

Guilty By Nature

SYNOPSIS

Set on a militant plant nursery, Guilty By nature follows the life cycle of a wild and vigorous shrub; exploring ideas of individuality & persecution. The film is shot with extreme close-ups, varied frame rates and an exaggerated soundscape.

DIRECTOR'S BIOGRAPHY

Joseph Barnett graduated in Visual Communication at the Kent institute of Art & Design in May 2000. He went on to fulfill the position of 'Head of Media' for MyMovies.net. Here he was responsible for the production of several weekly AV broadband shows.

In 2003 he left MyMovies and freelanced as a DV Director and a multi-media producer. He went on to Co Direct a long term observational documentary spanning over nine months. In 2005 he received funding from the Film London's LAFVA scheme for his script 'Guilty by Nature'. Currently he is developing a music promo for the Magnet Men.
